

The Catholic Schools of the Archdiocese are supported by all Catholics, and by the parents of those children of other religions who attend them as space permits. Therefore, it has been and remains, the policy of the Archdiocese to follow a pattern of open admission. Thus, all schools are open first to Catholic children within a parish, then to Catholic children outside the parish and then to all other children.

Considering the above, the policy for priority of acceptance is as follows:

- Brothers and sisters of those already in St. Jane Frances School
- Registered, practicing and contributing parishioners of St. Jane Frances Church
- Non-registered parishioners
- Non-parishioners

St. Jane Frances School in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, welcomes students of all race, color, national, ethnic, and religious origins to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students in this school.
